

Conference

European Employment Policies: Current Challenges.

Active and passive labour market policies in the EU

Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant

Friday, 23 September 2016 - Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin – Faculty of Law

Program

Morning Session – EEP Overview

8.45	-	9.15	Registration
9.15	-	9.30	Opening and welcome Professor Reinhard Singer, Humboldt University Berlin
9.30	-	10.00	European Employment Policies: a critical analysis of the legal framework Professor Manfred Weiss, Goethe University Frankfurt
10.00	-	10.30	European Employment Policies: a focus on the soft law strategies Professor Edoardo Ales, University Cassino
10.30	-	10.50	Coffee break
10.0	-	11.20	What role for solopreneurs in the labour market? Professor Bernd Waas, Goethe University Frankfurt
11.20	-	11.50	Discussion
11.50	-	13.30	Lunch

Afternoon Session – EEP, Implementation in Member States

14.00	-	14.30	The Austrian and the Hungarian systems: a comparative analysis Professor Martin Risak, Institut für Arbeits- und Sozialrecht, University of Wien
14.30	-	14.50	Coffee break
14.50	-	15.20	The Italian and the Danish systems: a comparative analysis Doctor Tania Bazzani, Humboldt University Berlin
15.20	-	15.50	Discussion
15.50	-	16.00	Closing - Professor Reinhard Singer

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under the Marie Skłodowska-Curie grant agreement No 654925.